What is HogHerd?

HogHerd is an innovative Play-to-Earn platform focused on a single exciting game. The platform allows players to earn rewards through gameplay while supporting emerging crypto projects with marketing and community engagement. Powered by HOGSCOIN, HogHerd creates a dynamic and supportive space where both gamers and crypto projects can thrive.

What We Offer

HogHerd is more than just a gaming platform. It provides:

- Play-to-Earn opportunities: Players can enjoy a fun, engaging game and earn rewards.
 - Crypto project support: We offer marketing and visibility to help emerging crypto projects grow, gain recognition, and engage with a community of players and enthusiasts.

Earn with HogHerd

Players can earn HOGSCOIN and other cryptocurrencies by playing the game, completing tasks, and participating in quizzes. HogHerd offers players the opportunity to engage with the platform and be part of a growing and supportive community.

What is HOGSPPOINT?

In addition to earning HOGSCOIN, players can earn HOGSPPOINT by playing the game and completing tasks or quizzes. These points act as an in-game reward system, allowing players to accumulate valuable HOGSPPOINT. Once collected, HOGSPPOINT can be swapped for HOGSCOIN, providing players the opportunity to convert their in-game efforts into real, tradable crypto rewards.

Frequently Asked Questions

What makes HogHerd unique?

HogHerd stands out by offering users the opportunity to earn cryptocurrencies that are already traded on exchanges. Our native token, HOGSCOIN, is also listed on exchanges, allowing players to earn real, tradable assets while enjoying the platform. This integration of gaming and cryptocurrency provides tangible value for our community.

When will tokens earned by users be distributed?

Earned tokens will be allocated to users at random times, ensuring a fair and dynamic distribution process. This approach maintains an exciting and unpredictable experience for our community while keeping the process transparent and equitable.

When will HOGSPPOINT be available for swapping?

The swap feature for HOGSPPOINT is scheduled to launch in the fourth quarter of 2025. During this time, users will still have the opportunity to earn a variety of cryptocurrencies by playing the game.
